

Coming Soon at the Ecocentre

We are running two events on March the 9th at the Ecocentre; I thought you might be interested. I have a Nuffield Scholar Jen Hunter coming to run a workshop in the afternoon and a presentation / questions and debate on the opportunities of British wool in the evening.

- At 1.30 pm on the 9th we have a workshop focusing on snoods & peg looming with opportunities to try drop spindles and knitting.
- At 7pm Jen will be presenting Growing and Marketing of Fine Wool in native colours , Jen presentation tells a fascinating story of her research from around the world , and sets out missed opportunities for the UK Wool Industry , the evening will be informative and very interesting for farmers, partners and for anyone with an interest in wool and marketing . <http://www.eco-centre.org.uk/2016/02/farm-futures-discussion-meeting>

Farmer for the day is still every Saturday starting at 9am until 12.30pm David getting busy with new kid goats and Lambs as well as tree planting. Please book. <http://www.eco-centre.org.uk/2016/02/be-a-farmer-for-a-day>

Men in Sheds are now running Tuesday afternoons starting at 1.30pm as well as Fridays at 10am <http://www.eco-centre.org.uk/2016/02/men-in-sheds-needs-your-help>

Robert & Julia Reid return for another evening of entertainment and tasty treats. Demonstrating recipes for Spring time cooking. £20 head with a glass of wine. <http://www.eco-centre.org.uk/2016/02/cookery-demo-tasting-evening>

Save the date. Our popular annual Open Farm day is on 5th JUNE keep the date free in your diary! For a family day on the farm to meet the animals, see the farm machinery, activities tent for the children, demos & our farm cafe. Keen to help volunteers are welcome <http://www.eco-centre.org.uk/2016/02/open-farm-sunday-2016>
